

WHY BUSINESSES NEED ERRORS & OMISSIONS LIABILITY COVERAGE

- Any company that provides a service needs this coverage
- Businesses that engage in consulting services that give professional advice should have this coverage.
- E&O coverage will prevent the possibility of an uncovered claim.
- Without E&O coverage, a business would be liable for millions in damages plus the fees associated with a legal team.
- Unfortunately, claims are made even if your work is done adequately, so E&O coverage is needed.
- A past client could file a lawsuit months after the services were performed.
- What if a client files a lawsuit after your business is closed?
